Welcome

We are a thriving club which runs 4 Ladies teams, 3 Men's teams and a successful Junior section, new players are always welcome! We play from October through to March with league hockey on Saturdays for senior teams and junior tournaments on Sundays. We also have hockey on throughout the summer months aimed at more sociable sessions rather than league games.

YSHC is based at Yeovil Recreation Centre on the Artificial pitch with both our home matches and training sessions taking place here. The full address for our pitch is YRC Artificial Pitch, Chilton Grove, Yeovil, Somerset, BA21 4AW.

The Club welcomes new members, players, coaches or umpires: Please click on this link for more information.

“Yeovil & Sherborne HC has a clear development plan with robust aims and objectives. Strong leadership means that the Club is extremely efficient, effective and offers a first class service to its members” - Official Clubmark via England Hockey & Sport England

Hockey is a sport for all. England Hockey is committed to the principle of equal opportunity, irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race (including ethnic origin, colour or nationality), religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

After completing this training, you will:

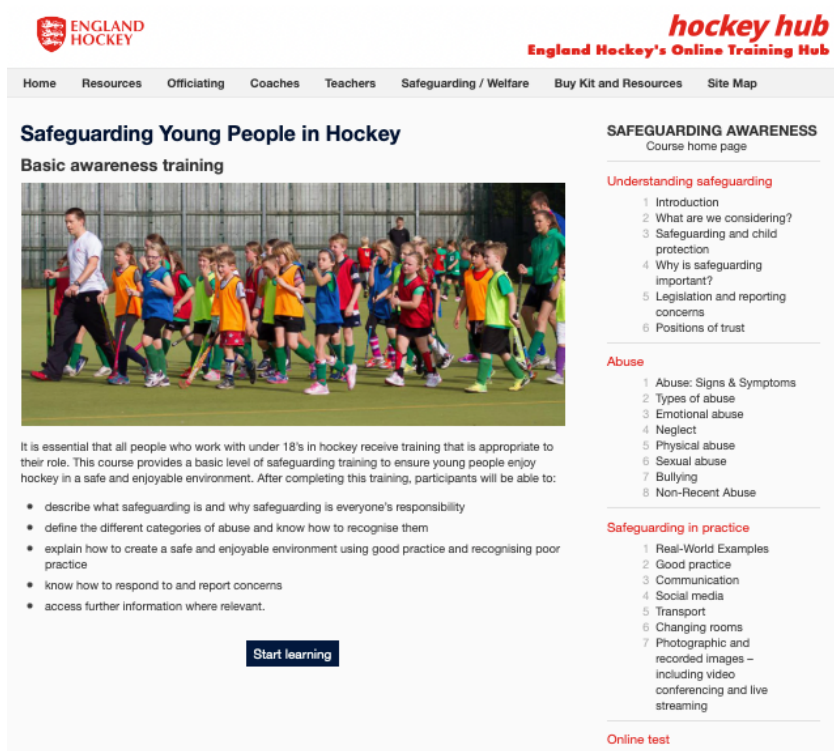

- Recognise the difference between equality, diversity and inclusion
- Consider how an individual can be discriminated against
- State the nine protected characteristics
- Know how to report discrimination
- Recognise your obligations under the Equality Act 2010

Let's start by understanding the difference between equality, diversity and inclusion.

Safeguarding

9. Selecting Basic Online Training Course” will bring-up the Basic Awareness Training page: You can start learning by clicking on the Start Learning button.

The screenshot shows the 'Safeguarding Awareness' course page on the England Hockey Online Training Hub. The page features the England Hockey logo and the 'hockey hub' branding. A navigation menu includes Home, Resources, Officiating, Coaches, Teachers, Safeguarding / Welfare, Buy Kit and Resources, and Site Map. The main heading is 'Safeguarding Young People in Hockey' with a sub-heading 'Basic awareness training'. A photograph shows a coach and several young hockey players on a field. Below the photo, a paragraph explains the course's purpose: 'It is essential that all people who work with under 18's in hockey receive training that is appropriate to their role. This course provides a basic level of safeguarding training to ensure young people enjoy hockey in a safe and enjoyable environment. After completing this training, participants will be able to:'. A bulleted list follows, detailing learning objectives such as describing safeguarding, defining abuse categories, and reporting concerns. A 'Start learning' button is prominently displayed. On the right side, a 'Safeguarding Awareness' sidebar lists course sections: 'Understanding safeguarding' (6 items), 'Abuse' (8 items), and 'Safeguarding in practice' (7 items). An 'Online test' link is also visible at the bottom of the sidebar.

10. To start the Safeguarding training you will be asked to pay £10.00 or use a voucher code. The Club has purchased voucher codes from Hockey Hub that can be redeemed against online training courses and resources: Please use the code supplied by the Club to pay. Should the voucher not work, please contact the Club Chairman or Club Treasurer who will arrange for more credit.
